All ads must be placed in accordance with stated deadline schedules, paid for prior to publication. Print-ready ("camera-ready") ad copy submissions must meet size dimensions at 300 dpi resolution. PDF, .tif, .eps, or hi-quality (300 dpi) .jpg files accepted.

Mountain House Matters, a division of Association News Network, Inc., will not be held responsible for errors in "camera-ready" ad copy provided by subscriber. Generally, MH Matters! will build an initial ad copy design at no additional expense to you, with your paid placement. Ad copy designs provided by Mountain House Matters/Association News Network, Inc. may be used solely for affiliated publication/web production, under current US Copyright laws. Subscriber/client is not authorized to use any ad copy design proof or final copy for any other purpose without the expressed written permission of the publisher of Mountain House Matters/Association News Network, Inc.

Should authorization be granted, Mountain House Matters/ANN, Inc. will be compensated for design time at minimum $75/hour, based on time spent - minimum one hour.

Thank you for your consideration. We look forward to working with you soon.
